Autumn Winter 2026

Emily Palmer

I'm Emily, an illustrator based in Cambridgeshire.

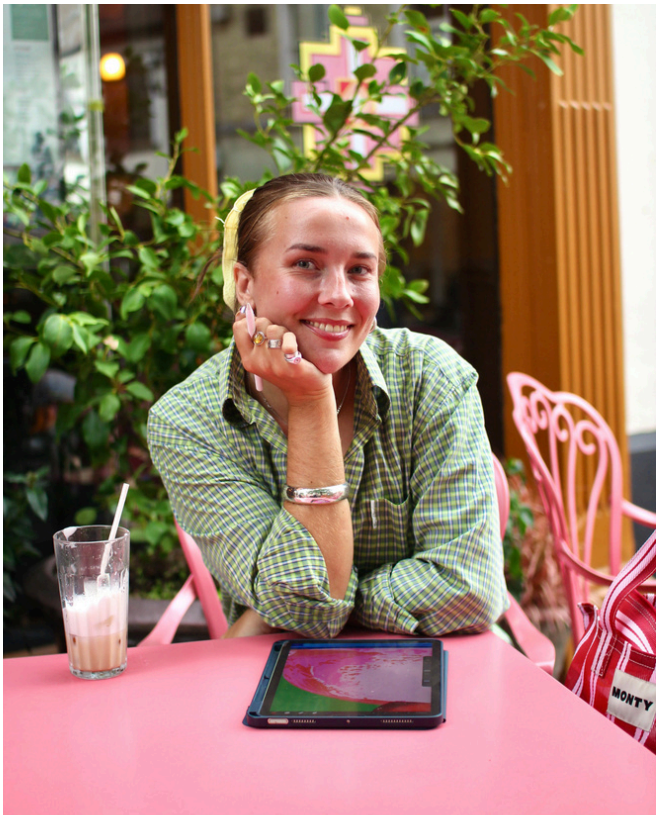

Find me creating joyful, thoughtfully designed greetings cards and art prints that bring colour and happiness to everyday life.

Inspired by a love of creativity and playful design, my collections combine vibrant illustrations with products that make meaningful gifts and beautiful additions to any shop.

Each design is digitally drawn on Procreate, with art prints produced in house and greetings cards elsewhere.

I'm delighted to share my latest seasonal collection with you, featuring a range of festive designs and everyday favourites.

I hope you discover the perfect pieces for your shop and look forward to the possibility of working together.
